Executive Leadership. Andrew continues to inspire teams globally. Previously he has demonstrated this in various roles as an Executive Coach, COO, Portfolio Manager as well as a Project & Program Management leader. His proven and excellent ability to understand and build trust with both formal and informal decision-making enables him to reach consensus with a wider group of stakeholders and guide organizations to new and profitable opportunities and value-add.

Skilled Coach, Trainer, and Advisor. He is comfortable working with everyone from the team, management, and executive levels including up through the board of directors and knows what it takes to get everyone to the finish line.

Methodology Agnostic. Andrew's confidence and deep experience in both traditional and agile environments is another key to his success. The exceptional value delivered by the teams he trains, mentors and coaches is reflected in the team's ability to distill the organization's requirements, testing, documentation, and quality assurance enabling the team to deliver with focus and clarity.

Successful Assignments. Many of the assignments in which Andrew has led, coached & mentored are time critical and urgent. In exactly those kinds of pressure situations, Andrew leverages his capabilities as a senior advisor to lead both large and small groups to success. He has led several major portfolios, programs, and projects, in parallel, to achieve great, mutually beneficial, and profitable results.

Sustainable Results and Value-add

No one succeeds on every project. This is why Andrew includes two examples of assignments that didn't meet expectations in the 14 case studies in his best-selling book "Flow: Get Everyone Moving in the Right Direction...and Loving It". However, most of the teams that Andrew successfully trained, coached, mentored, and measured delivered the following stunning value-add:

...let's discuss how to duplicate these results with your teams!

Automotive Industry

Within the Automotive industry I have worked with the following assignments:

- 2009-10 IIL / Volvo
 - Trainer for project leadership for the PMP preparation course to help the PMs pass the test.
 - This included PMs from Volvo as well as Nokia, Ericsson, Deutsche Bank, Citibank, AIG, etc.
- 2013-14 SolutionsIQ, Accenture / OnStar
 - My assignment was as an Enterprise Agile Coach for the Agile Transformation at OnStar (GM).
 - Also advised and coached the Program and Portfolio leadership.
- 2019 Guerilla Leadership, Tiba USA / ZF
 - Once again, my assignment was as an Enterprise Agile Coach for the Agile Transformation at ZF (in Detroit and in Germany), with ACO (ADAS camera, AI) teams och the BQT team.
 - Also advised and coached the Program and Portfolio leadership.

Banking, Finance, and Insurance

Within banking, finance, and insurance I have worked with the following assignments:

- 2009-10 IIL / Deutsche Bank, Citibank, AIG
 - Trainer for project leadership for the PMP preparation course to help the PMs pass the test.
 - This included PMs from Deutsche Bank, Citibank, AIG, as well as Volvo, Nokia, Ericsson, etc.
- 2016-18 IPSoft (Sthlm), Softronic (Sthlm) / Under NDA
 - My assignment was as an Enterprise Agile Coach for the teams that were creating an AI digital assistant for a couple of major Nordic banks.
 - Advised and coached the Program and Portfolio leadership.
- 2021 Guerilla Leadership, / Under NDA
 - Once again, my assignment was as an Enterprise Agile Coach for the Agile Transformation for a medium-sized US Insurance company based in the Southeast of the US.
 - Advised and coached the executive leadership team.

Case Studies

Published Author. Andrew is a rare combination that has both a solid theoretical understanding and that is also solidly backed-up by real-world, outstanding outcomes (backed by over 25 years of research including both empirical and qualitative case studies) as he shared in the following books that he co-authored:

- Flow: Get Everyone Moving in the Right Direction...And Loving It (2018, fourteen case studies)
- The Nehemiah Effect: Ancient Wisdom from the World's First Agile Projects (2014)
